The Village Officers—Deaths of Mrs. Phoebe L. Quimby and Mrs. Jacob Richardson, Sr.

(Mrs. C. F. Cutting, Correspondent.) At the annual village meeting the following officers were elected for the coming year: Moderator, Jacob Richardson, Jr.; clerk, E. A. Gray; trustees, George H. Hastings, A. D. Forsaith, Thomas Hunter, Fred A. Lewis, O. W. Baker; treasurer, Allison Currier; collector, W. E. Housington; auditors, F. A. Brewer, George Joelin, W. C. Harvey; tax 25 cents. Adah Chapter, No. 39, O. E. S., will hold its installation of officers Thursday evening, refreshments will be served.

Remember the box party at the M. E. vestry Thursday, April 15.

Mrs. Phoebe L. Quimby. Mrs. Phoebe L. Quimby passed away at her home in Kirby, Saturday, April 3, after an illness of two weeks of the grip. Phoebe L. Gilbert was born in Concord, May 12, 1844, daughter of Nathan Rogers and Reed Gilbert. One of a family of nine children, she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Charles M. Wallace of East Ryegate and Mrs. Florence E. Matthews of Groveton, N. H. On July 4, 1867, she was married to Ira Quimby and to them were born five children, four of whom survive her, Mary E. (Mrs. Arthur Davis), Luna M. (Mrs. J. A. Williams), Ransel I. and Ernest M. Quimby. She is also survived by several grand children.

Mrs. Quimby was always a home body, devoting her self unapartly to her invalid husband for many years. Since his death in 1900 she has kept the home farm, her sons Ransel and Ernest M. and family residing with her. The funeral was held from her late home Tuesday at 1 o'clock, Rev. A. M. Smith, pastor of the First Universalist church officiating. A male quartet from St. Johnsbury rendered three beautiful selections. A delegation from Concord Grange, No. 408, of which deceased was a member, attended in a body. The many beautiful floral tributes testified to the esteem in which she was held. Interment in the family lot in Grove cemetery. Among those called to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Wallace of East Ryegate, Mrs. Florence E. Matthews, Miss Hazle E. Matthews of Groveton, N. H., Austin Gilbert and daughter of Fairlee, F. R. Powers and Glenn Powers of Lyndonville, Mr. and Mrs. Roy N. Powers of Lyndon, Luther Green of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wark and Charles Owens of East St. Johnsbury.

Mrs. Jacob Richardson, Sr. Mrs. Jacob Richardson passed away at her home in this village Wednesday morning, April 7. Mrs. Richardson had been in poor health for many years but not until three months ago did the family realize it was from a malignant trouble. Lovina Adella Kellogg was born in Concord, June 16, 1843, a daughter of Arthusa Metcalf and Benjamin P. Kellogg. Of a family of 12 children, Mrs. Horace Hastings is the only survivor. On Dec. 2, 1862, she was married in St. Johnsbury to Jacob Richardson. Four children were born to them, Fred E. and Frank M. of Littleton, N. H., Ida M. (Mrs. Charles A. Caswell) and Jacob, Jr., of this town. Mrs. Richardson's interests were centered in her home and family but so far as health and strength permitted she was for many years a worker in the Universalist church from which the funeral was held, Friday at 2 o'clock, Rev. A. M. Smith officiating. Rev. George S. Smith sang three selections with guitar accompaniment. The bearers were: E. A. Gray, H. E. Currier, F. W. Chapman and W. D. Blodgett. The interment was in the family lot in the new cemetery. Besides the husband and children left to mourn the loss of a devoted wife and mother, she leaves seven grand children. Those called here to attend the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. M. Richardson and sons, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Lewis, Mrs. George Morse of Littleton, N. H., Harl Pike and Miss Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Cutting, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Ladd of Waterford, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gilman, Harry Day, Elisha May, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Hovey, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Spaulding, Mr. Montgomery, Edward Spaulding, Walter Kellogg of St. Johnsbury, Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. George Chase of East St. Johnsbury, W. E. Wallace of Hanover, N. H., and J. B. Wallace of East Concord.

Label for Divorce

CALEDONIA COUNTY COURT

Lelia Atkins vs. June Term

A. D. 1915

Whereas, Lelia Atkins, of the County of Caledonia, and State of Vermont, has filed in the office of the Clerk of Caledonia County Court, her Libel for Divorce, setting forth in substance, that on the 25th day of October, A. D. 1892, she was lawfully married to Avery E. Atkins, now of parts unknown without the State of Vermont, that she afterwards cohabited with the said libelee in the State of Vermont, that during cohabitation she on her part has faithfully kept the marriage covenant; that the libelee treated her with cruelty, and with a view to deprive her of her property, and to deprive her of the custody of said minor child, and that she has one child, the fruit of said marriage, whose name is Leo Avery Greenwood, born January 8, 1914.

And praying that the bonds of matrimony between her and the said libelee be dissolved and that she be granted a bill of divorce, and be decreed the custody of said minor child, and it being made to appear, upon satisfactory proof by way of affidavit, that the libelee without this state so that a citation cannot be served upon him, and that the libelee has made diligent inquiry and does not know where the libelee resides:

Therefore, it is ordered that notice of the pendency of said libel be given to said libelee by publication of the substance thereof, together with this order, in the St. Johnsbury Caledonian, a newspaper published at St. Johnsbury, in the County of Caledonia, two weeks successively, the last publication to be at least six weeks prior to the first day of the next term of Caledonia County Court, to be held at St. Johnsbury, within and for the County of Caledonia, and State of Vermont, on the first Tuesday of June, A. D. 1915, at which time the said Leo Avery Greenwood is ordered to appear and answer to said libel.

Whereunder my hand, at St. Johnsbury, in the County of Caledonia, this 5th day of April, A. D. 1915.

Summer Homes Wanted

NEW ENGLAND'S summer visitors from all over the country are again seeking the pleasant spots. They are looking for the well-managed hotels and the pleasantly located boarding places and farms where paying guests are received.

Every spring these people turn to the advertising columns of the Boston Evening Transcript, where announcements of the best summer places are published.

Though many families prefer to lease farms, houses, or cottages in the country, a large number of properties are sold every year to Western people attracted to the New England States by advertisements in the Boston Transcript.

If you desire to reach the well-to-do people and attract them to your town insert a well-worded advertisement in the Boston Transcript.
